

Alexandria Gazette.

TUESDAY EVENING, OCT. 19, 1909.

Local Matters.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 6:14 and sets at 5:14.
High water at 11:48 a. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair and continued cool tonight and Wednesday; frost tonight, moderate northwesterly, shifting to northeasterly winds.

CONSECRATION SERVICES.

The consecration of Rev. Dr. Arthur Selden Lloyd as bishop, coadjutor of the Episcopal diocese of Virginia will take place at Christ Church tomorrow, as has heretofore been stated in the Gazette. There will be three services—at 7, 9 and 11 o'clock, the last being the consecration services proper. The programme has been published and will be carried out with possible minor changes. Admission to the 11 o'clock services will be by card only, owing to the limited seating capacity of the church and the large number of visiting clergy expected to be present. The procession of clergy from the parish hall to the church will start promptly at 11 o'clock. Those holding cards of admission to the church are urged to be present by 10:40 o'clock. The visiting clergy are expected to wear their robes.

At the 7 o'clock service the Chapter of Præbe of the church will sing the 3rd, 225th and 333rd hymns.

At the 9 o'clock service the regular choir of the church will render the music as follows: Processional hymn, 490; Venite, 68; Gloria Patri, Mozart; Te Deum, Melkite; Jubilate Deo, Selly; Recessional hymn, 581.

The choir is composed of Mrs. M. W. O'Brien, director, and alto; Mrs. R. F. DeWahm, soprano; Kenneth Ogden, tenor; Geo. H. Evans, bass; Mrs. Chas. Lennon, organist.

CIVIC IMPROVEMENT LEAGUE.

A fully attended meeting of the Civic Improvement League was held last night at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, Mr. E. S. Leadbeater, the president, presiding.

The chairman of the special committee having in charge the arrangements for the public meeting which is to be held on Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the Young People's Building, reported that the gentlemen who had been invited to address the meeting had accepted the invitation of the league.

The chairman of the committee on schools was instructed to invite all the school children to be present at this meeting, as it is felt they will be especially interested in the awarding of the two prizes, one a $10 gold piece, which is to be given to the school child having the best kept yard, and a $5 gold piece to the child whose yard shows the greatest improvement.

The chairman of the committee on streets reported that $90 had been subscribed by business men of the city towards the fund for the purchase and erection of waste paper boxes on the streets, the subscriptions being in amounts from $1 up, one especially public spirited citizen having given $25. The boxes have been ordered and it is hoped to have them shortly erected.

DEATH OF JOHN CALLAHAN.

Mr. John Callahan, second vice president and general manager of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, died at his home in Washington this morning. The deceased had been in feeble health for some time. He was about 70 years old. He leaves a widow and four children—two sons and two daughters. Mr. Callahan was for a long time a resident of Virginia, and at one time represented the Norfolk district in the legislature. He was practically the originator of the Norfolk and Washington line in which he cultivated all his enterprise and business instincts. The flag on the steamers of that line have been at half-mast today in respect to his memory.

AWARDS MADE.

The handsome canoe Seminole, belonging to Seminole Tribe 35, Improved Order of Red Men, was awarded at Armory Hall last night to J. Mannheimer, of the German Embassy, Washington, S. Frank Field, of this city, was awarded the pipe. Both articles were held over from the recent autumn festival held by the organization at Armory Hall. Little Miss Sarah Virginia Nicklin, aged 5 years, daughter of Great Senior Sagamore Nicklin, of this city, was the little girl who awarded the articles.

ANOTHER MOVING PICTURE SHOW.

Considerable anxiety is manifested by people living on north Fairfax street at the prospect of the installation of a moving picture show in the frame building on the east side of that thoroughfare, next to Princess street. The show is to be exclusively for the accommodation of negroes, and people living in the neighborhood are satisfied scenes of disorder will be of nightly occurrence when the place shall have been opened.

ELKS.

A well-attended meeting of Alexandria Lodge of Elks was held last night, at which the report of the building committee was submitted and their action in awarding the contract to J. W. Devers for the new building was affirmed. The erection of the structure will be proceeded with in accordance with the plans and specifications heretofore published in the Gazette.

STOLEN LEATHER.

While some boys were gunning in the vicinity of Lochaber a short distance northeast of this city yesterday they found six rolls of leather secured in bushes. They notified the county authorities, and Justice Barrell took charge of the leather and will hold it until the appearance of the owner. It was probably taken from a railroad car.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY.

[Judge J. B. T. Thornton, presiding.] The grand jury returned several indictments against persons for selling liquor without licenses.

No cases of import were heard today.

The Lindner Shoe for Ladies' fine weas has no equal, John A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

PERSONAL.

Bishop Gibson, of Virginia, and Bishop Peterkin, of West Virginia, are in this city the guests of Rev. W. J. Morton, at Christ Church rectory.

Mr. Richard E. Wirt, of this city, will be one of the ushers at the wedding to Washington, tomorrow, of Miss Anna M. Anderson and Mr. Charles Morrell. Rev. and Mrs. John J. Lloyd, of Big Stone Gap, are the guests of Mr. George Uhler, on Cameron street.

Mr. Raleigh T. Greene, of Culpeper, was in this city today. Mr. Green's name is mentioned in connection with the position of secretary of the commonwealth, recently made vacant by the death of D. Q. Eggleston.

Rev. and Mrs. Edward Pendleton Dandridge are the guests at the home of Rev. Dr. Arthur S. Lloyd.

The Fauchon Club will give a dance at McBarney's Hall tonight. Capt. S. W. Hampton, cousin of Mr. George K. Pickett, of Fairfax, who has been on a visit here for the last three weeks, left today for his home in Memphis. He says he spent a very pleasant time, one of the happiest occasions of his visit being an invitation he received to deliver an address before Oldway Baptist Church, Washington, which church he assisted in organizing sixty years ago.

"LENA RIVERS."

If ever in his career the manager of the Opera House scored a success it was when he secured the four act drama for last night. To say it was presented by stars with an unbroken chain of pleasure to a house filled to the doors, is putting it mildly. The novel of "Lena Rivers" has endured the test of enthusiastic readers numbering millions for more than half a century. The drama as prepared for the stage by Mrs. Porter tells a simple, but absorbing story. "Lena" is a girl of the north concerning whose parentage there is more or less doubt. She lives with her grandmother and they are very poor. A turn in affairs takes her to the south to live with an uncle whose wife and daughter lose no opportunity to make the little girl feel uncomfortable. Not even the plain frocks in which they dress her can hide her beauty, however, and before long she attracts the attention of a gallant young man of the south who wins her love, only to be met by opposition from his parents. In the end everything is straightened out nicely and the honor of her name is vindicated and the last curtain descends with the audience assured that they lived happily ever after. Miss Edna Marshall was supported by an exceptionally strong cast.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Gay Johnson Stock Company will present tonight the thrilling western drama "The Night Riders of Kentucky." The story of the band of pirates and murderers in their Kentucky raids is still fresh in the minds of the reader. Tonight it will be placed on the stage by an excellent company with all its thrilling details. This stock company is pronounced one of the best appearing before the footlights and a good show is guaranteed. The Hatfield-McCoy feud will be pictured as natural as if one was in the blue grass regions of "Old Kentucky."

Earl W. King, who appeared here last evening with the "Lena Rivers Company," closed his engagement with that organization to join the Gay Johnson Stock Company which opens its engagement at the Opera House tonight. The Surprise Theatre will present a good show to the amusement lover tonight, and the pictures will be new and up-to-date, embracing interesting historical subjects. Among the excellent talent is Conroy and Lawson, champion mat dancers and song and dance artists; Henderson, the ventriloquist, and Jennie De Weese, trick instrumentalist and dancer.

RESIGNED.

Rev. C. K. Hobbs has tendered his resignation as pastor of the Second Baptist Church in this city and also as pastor of Del Ray Baptist Church. It is understood that Rev. Mr. Hobbs will assume the pastorate of a large church on the Eastern Shore of Virginia. His resignation will become effective December 1 next.

CORPORATION COURT.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.] Com. vs. John Lattin; jury and case in progress. This is the case which has been on trial for some days and grows out of the collision on September 8th last of an electric train and a locomotive on the Southern Railway at the intersection of Cameron and Henry streets.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Young Men's Senate will meet tonight. This will be the first meeting since the summer recess.

A meeting of the Reliance Fire Company will be held tonight. The company will give an oyster roast in the near future.

E. J. Brad, of Culpeper, has notified the police of this city that a set of buggy harness was stolen from his place about two weeks ago.

There was but one case before the Police Court this morning, that of William Ennis, a young colored man, who was charged with stealing bed clothes from his mother. He was dismissed.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Charles Shepherd, of Accotink, and Mary Nelson, of Lorton Valley, and to Joe Williams, and Mamie M. Sneedly, both of Front Royal.

Officers Nicholson and Garvey on Sunday last arrested Courtney Peyton, of this city, who is charged from deserting from the U. S. army. He was turned over to the officers at Fort Hunt. Peyton was in the employ of the Washington street car service when arrested.

We have received from the Atlanta Automobile Association an invitation to be present on Saturday, October 23, at the Automobile Speedway to attend the exercises incidental to the preliminary opening of the speedway. Barbecue will be served on the grounds at twelve o'clock, followed by speed trials by prominent drivers.

Bettie Williamson and her daughter, Clara were arrested a few days ago near St. Asaph in the county by Constable Payne for indecent and disorderly conduct with two tramps. Yesterday they were taken before Justice Barrell, who found the two women $50 each and costs but suspended judgment provided the women would leave the county and return to lower Prince William county, which they said was their home and where they said they wanted to go.

Full soon the tales of Mr. Einstein will be enacted. No more will the adventures of the Caliph of Baghdad be chronicled herein.

Nancy Lee, Maggie Maguire, Spike Maginias, Moawaa, the big Indian, and all who have become known to you through these little articles will soon be relegated to the dim and distant past. Saturday our contract with them expires. Mayhap at some near future we will begin all over again and until then, we want you to remember that we will always keep the finest quality of meat and food products obtainable anywhere in the city. Those irresistibly delicious Auth Sausages and Hams and our equally delicious house killed fresh meat is the kind that always gives satisfaction. Sylvan Blondheim, The Auth Stand and The Auth Market.

As will be seen by his advertisement R. E. Knight is disposing of his large stock of gunning coats and guns at a reduction.

To Condemn Spanish Government.

New York, Oct. 19.—A mass meeting, at which the organizers declare resolutions condemning the Spanish government for the execution of Professor Ferrer will be held, is to be held in Carnegie Hall tonight under the auspices of the international labor aid conference.

Letters expressing sympathy with the purpose of the assemblage will be read from Rev. Dr. Parkhurst, John de Witt Warner, Williams Dean Howells, and Rev. S. McArthur.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 19.—Heavy selling by the larger room traders was the feature of the first hour's trading. The large blocks offered kept prices down, but the rallying tone was evident and the general list was only fractionally below yesterday's close. Trading in the latter part of the forenoon was without much importance, the professional element appearing to be out of the market for the time. With the pressure from this source ended the market took on a steadier tone with some fractional advances in prices.
